

NHD Rough Draft Expectations

WHAT'S THE POINT: The rough draft is designed to force you to start the production process. Below are the expectations for each category. Hand in all pieces together along with your binder. Include all group members' names. The Rough Draft will be assessed out of 50 points based upon the following task lists.

DOCUMENTARY

- A. Revised and updated process paper and annotated bibliography
- B. Working Title Reflecting Thesis with Theme Words in Title
- C. Draft narration script
- D. 15-20 visuals (video clips, photos, drawings, maps, etc.) and explain how you plan to use them

EXHIBIT

- A. Revised and updated process paper and annotated bibliography
- B. Working Title Reflecting Thesis with Theme Words in Title
- C. 15-20 visuals (photos, drawings, maps, etc.) and explain how you plan to use them
- D. Provide a detailed drawing of your display that includes overall structure, segmentation, title, headings, sub-headings, visuals, quotes & captions
- E. Written Components completed (title, headings, sub-headings, captions)

PAPER

- A. Revised and updated process paper and annotated bibliography
- B. Working Title Reflecting Thesis with Theme Words in Title
- C. 1500-2500 word draft including
 1. major arguments & supporting arguments
 2. evidence you have (or will need, to support each argument)
 - a. Footnoted (in Word, from "Insert" dropdown menu, select "Footnote")
 3. commentary on evidence that analyzes, interprets & connects evidence to argument

PERFORMANCE

- A. Revised and updated process paper and annotated bibliography
- B. Working Title Reflecting Thesis with Theme Words in Title
- C. Draft script of performance including stage directions
- D. Drawing of set. Description of costumes. List of props.

WEBSITE

- A. Revised and updated process paper and annotated bibliography
- B. Working Title Reflecting Thesis with Theme Words in Title
- C. Draft Pages of Website
 - i. Provide web address in paperwork
 - ii. Draft of Content for each page
 - iii. 10-15 visuals (video clips, photos, drawings, maps, etc.)